THE COMMA IN ADDRESS Napoleon And The Drummer Boy The battle had raged for hours. Though the French fought desperately, they could not withstand the furious assault of the Austrians. Fearing that his men would be driven from the field in hopeless confusion, Napoleon shouted to a drummer boy, Beat a retreat! There was no response. Again Napoleon shouted, Boy, beat a retreat! Stepping forward, the boy said, Sire, I don t know how to beat a retreat, but I can beat a charge that would make the dead fall in line A moment later the French corps heard above the din of battle the familiar, triumphant charge. They rallied, swept down on the Austrian host, and won the day. Read the story above. What term of address does Napoleon use in speaking to the drummer boy? By what title does the drummer boy address Napoleon? How are these terms of address separated...
