Thurston, of Oregon: On the Proposition to Admit California as a State Into the Union; Delivered in the House of Representatives, March 25, 1850 In Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, on the Presidents Message transmitting the Constitution of California. Mr. Thurston said: Mr. Chairman: I have come here as the delegate from the Territory of Oregon. I have the honor of being the first recognized Representative from the Pacific coast, and am at this time the only one accredited from that country on this floor. I come from the toil-worn people of that distant Territory, to speak and act in all cases, as I believe they would do, were they here, acting in my stead. I come here, sir, not as a party man, though I belong to a party; and not as a sectional man, though I belong to a section. Though by the law, I may be entitled to all the rights, save one, to which a Representative from a State is entitled, yet, as a matter of courtesy to the members of the House, if not of ease to myself, I shall refrain from all debate, except on such questions as my territory is immediately interested in; and on such I shall endeavor to confine myself to the question. On such Questions, I have no doubt, the members of this Congress, whether sitting as a House, or as a committee, will be disposed to grant me the privilege of speaking, and do me the honor to listen while I speak. The question of the admission of California into this Union as a State,...
