But--but--I sent it to you. You sent it to me! Heavens and earth! When? Not quite half an hour after you had left the house. My dear, what superhuman prescience told you that I wanted my watch in exactly thirty minutes? for it was then--or about ten minutes before that, to speak with precision--that I discovered I had left it. It was no prescience: it was a man. He couldn t have stolen it, because you sent it to me; but why in the name of the Ganges did you do that? It cost me five hundred dollars, including chain and charms, a stem-winder, and regulated the sun to the fiftieth part of a second. But didn t you send for it? Never! By a man with yellowish hair and blue eyes, who said he worked in the office? Never:...
