MONETARY AND CREDIT MANAGEMENT IN INDIA

New Century Publications, New Delhi, 2010. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. First. 14 cms. 274pp. Price stability and availability of sufficient credit for productive purposes have all along remained the twin objectives of monetary policy in India. The monetary policy reforms since 1991 have hinged on easing fiscal constraints. The first important step was introduction of an auction system for the Central Government's market borrowings in June 1992. This enabled an increasing proportion of the fiscal deficit to be financed by...
