Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sketch of the Bradleys in Washington: A Paper Read Before the Columbia Historical Society Tuesday, May 13th, 1902 These two brothers (and three sisters who resided elsewhere) were the children of Abraham Bradley, the third of his name in direct line of descent from ancestors who came from England and settled in Guilford, Conn., in 1639. As this progenitor (Abraham) spent the later years of his life with his sons in this city and was much interested in its growth and development, perhaps a brief mention of him will not be inappropriate, especially as he was a man of unusual physical and mental vigor and activity and an alert and intelligent observer and student of affairs. He owned no property here, aside from being a stock-holder in the old Bank of Washington, but he bequeathed his sterling character and abilities to his two sons, who gave the best part of their lives to the establishment, on firm and business-like foundations, of one of the great Departments of the Government. In a note made by himself,...
