The Making of A Soul (Paperback)

By Ernest E. Fogg

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The story here is one of interest pertaining to all who have lived during and through a period of developments like no other time in history. To grow up as a boy in rural America, Ernie saw changes in the world that advanced from the beginning life of true freedom and hard knocks, through technical advances for an easier life. With the advances of social caring and political correctness, lives have been improved upon with wonderful results. However, often times with the improvements, we find it is with a loss of some individual freedoms and personal ingenuity. With the invention of the automobile near the turn of the century, it was the year 1900 when Ernie's father, Merrill O. Fogg, was born. The world began to speed into the 20th century. The invention of the flying machine soon after in 1903, brought civilization to a front of unthinkable travel. It was unimaginable that 60 years later, men would walk on the moon. The Town of Freeport, Maine, though very rural, would see its parallel of this...
