Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Teachers Salaries in Certain Endowed Colleges and Universities in the United States Replies were received from 249 institutions - more than 96 per cent. of the list. As a general rule, the questions asked were clearly answered, especially by the larger and older established institutions, but there is no doubt that some of the replies are not entirely accurate and reliable, and, in a few cases, cannot be used because of their inaccuracies. However, for the purpose which was contemplated, the data obtained are adequate, and the amount of error will not materially modify conclusions which may be formed as to the general situation. The first questionnaire sought the following information for the years 1914-1915 and 1919-1920: 1. Regarding the instructional staff - the number employed, the rank, and the salaries paid. 2. The salary scale in effect and the budget income and expenditures under eight heading. 3. The percentage which each class of income or expenditures is of the total. 4. The attendance, tuition fees paid, and balance sheet. The object of this questionnaire was to find out the facts in the present situation and their variance from the situation existing in 1914-1915. The second questionnaire asked what increases in salaries had been authorized, either for the present year or for the future; what further increases were under consideration; what financial provisions had been made or contemplated to care for the increases; how far the resources of the institutions are adequate to provide for the increases authorized and planned, and what amount, if any, must be obtained from outside sources. The material obtained has been edited and tabulated, and certain general and specific facts...
