This is no new doctrine hatched up by the Means party to deceive the simple, as a leader of the other party has asserted. In the 119th Psalm, 50, it is said, This is my comfort in affliction; for thy word hath quickened me; and in the 93d of the same Psalm, I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me, to which the Apostle Paul responds in the 15th of Romans, 4, For whatever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. The word, the precepts of the Lord had quickened the Psalmist; and Paul says whatever was written aforetime was written for our learning; demonstrating that the scriptures were written for some purpose, and that they were not...
