After seventh day please direct to Edgely, where I hope to be in the course of next week, there to wait until it shall please the Lord to open the way for my return to my little habitation; when this is mercifully granted, I trust my dear friend we shall be enabled mutually to set up our Ebenezer under the renewed sense of the all-sustaining power and goodness of the Lord Almighty, to whom be thanksgiving and praise now and forever. Amen. Tell your dear children I love them, and think of them often. I salute thee and dear Leonard in Gospel affection, and remain your tribulated sister, Rebecca Jones. As the Yearly Meeting drew near, being still undecided whether to attend it, she again visited Burlington, making her home with her friend Martha Allinson. For a day or two both R. Jones and M. A. were under great mental exercise, desiring right direction whether they should at this solemn crisis go to the annual assembly, and not seeing clearly any light upon their movement in the matter; but when at length R. J. proposed to go to Philadelphia, the language distinctly presented, Who hath required this at thy hand r She informed her hostess of her conclusion to remain, and found that she had arrived at a similar decision. From Burlington they were taken by James Logan, and his nephew John Smith, 10th mo. 10th, to Edgely, there to remain...
