Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 174 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Learn how to work more effectively with K-5 parents to increase student achievement in math and literacy. Research shows that parent involvement in schools leads to higher test scores and more engaged and enthusiastic students, but it isn t always easy for teachers to bridge the gap between the home and the school. This insightful book provides helpful, research-based strategies to foster meaningful home-school partnerships and overcome the challenges teachers often face when trying to build relationships with parents. You ll learn new ways to: * Promote parent involvement at home and school; * Share specific math and literacy strategies with parents to reinforce children s learning; * Plan and organize effective parent conferences that foster true dialogue about a child s education; * Communicate with parents about what you re teaching and how you re teaching it, so they can actively contribute to their child s learning at home; * Develop family nights and workshops to get parents involved in learning at school; * Recommend games, activities, and projects that parents can use at home to help their children practice math and literacy skills; * And much more! Each chapter is full of practical tools such as Common Core-aligned strategies, useful resources for parents, and sample parent letters that you can use to increase and improve your home-school communications. Bonus: Additional parent letters on a variety of topics are available on our website, 9781138998698, to help you keep parents connected throughout the year.
