Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Directions for Making and Administering Nitrous Oxide This little treatise was written to fulfill a promise made in an advertisement in the Dental Cosmos, to give gratuitous information on the subject of Nitrous Oxide to those who applied. It had been my custom to write out the important details of the manufacture and use of the gas to such of my patrons as made inquiries. But the advertisement alluded to brought such a shower of letters, that it was utterly impossible to answer them in writing. I would prefer to have made a larger volume, and given the full history of anaesthesia; but that would have involved too great an expense for a gratuitous work, and occupied too much time in its preparation, to meet the present urgent demand. There can be no doubt that Nitrous Oxide will supersede all the other anaesthetic agents in a very brief period; and, if no other hand takes up the needed task, I hope, at some future day, to offer a better volume on the subject. I have...
