The Regent, Dr. J. M. Gregory, presented his report, together with reports from the several Professors in charge of Departments. Regent s Report. To the Honorable Board of Trustees of the Illinois Industrial University: Gentlemen--This quarterly report closes the work of this academic year; hut as the report of the several departments are not yet complete, I must defer till a later time the proper historical statements. But as some action is required in view of the wants of the coming year, I offer for your consideration the following recommendations: RECOMMENDATIONS. I recommend that Professor Weber be advanced to the full Professorship of Chemistry. His first year s work with us has been satisfactory, and his previous rank and...
