Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Political History of the United States of America During the Period of Reconstruction, From April 15, 1865, to July 15 It is hoped, however, that the coraplcteucess of the Index, both 9 to subjects, persons, and parties, will cnnblo all, without difficulty, to command ready access to tho multitude of facts which will be found in these pages. Part I contains a full statement of tho Orders and Proclamations auJ the general action of President Johnson, in the development of his policy of restor-ing the insurrectionary States to their places in the Union, by calling constitutional conventions in each, on an indicated basis, and by suggesting certain action therein as preliminary to restoration. It also contains the legislation of those organizations respecting tho colored population recently freed, and tho various Messages, Speeches, Letters, and Proclamations of the President in vindication of his policy and in resistance to that of Congress. This part will also bo found to contain tho full text of the majority and minority reports of tho Joint Congressional Committee on Reconstruction, with the text of the Fourteenth Amendment, as finally adopted by Congress and submitted to tho Legislatures for their action. This amendment having been rejected by tho Legislatures in the insurrectionary States, chosen under the action of President Johnson, Congress subsequently adopted tho decisive measure of dividing those States into five Military Districts, providing for their re-organization on the basis of, substantially, Universal Manhood Suffrage, and prescribing the conditions on which they would be entitled to representation in Congress. Part II contains the texts of these various measures, the Veto Messages of the President in disapproval of them, and the...
